

English

- To edit and improve pieces of writing.
- Use a range of writing techniques such as alliteration, fronted adverbials and inverted commas more confidently.
- To look at poetry.
- To use a higher level of language in writing.
- To look at features within fiction and non-fiction books.

Mathematics

- To recognise unit and non-fiction fractions.
- To add and compare fractions.
- To tell and write the time from an analogue clock.
- To estimate, compare and record time in terms of seconds, minutes and hours.
- To draw 2D and 3D shapes using modelling materials.
- Identify whether angles are greater or less than a right angle.

Science

- Light - Children to learn how light is the absence of dark as well as how light reflects and creates shadows.
- Earth and Space - Children to identify the different planets and look closely at the solar system.

History

- Ancient Greeks
- When were they powerful?
- What was daily life like in Ancient Athens?
- Who made the big decisions in Ancient Athens?
- What new ideas did they have?
- How well did they get on with their neighbours?

Art & Design

- Using different grades of pencil shades to show different tones and texture.
- Sketch work linked to Geography and History.
- Exploring work from other periods of time.

Design & Technology

- Collage - Overlapping materials, using different colours, repeated patterns.
- Paper mosaics

Modern Languages

- Mixing primary colours.
- Learning to count in 10s to 100.
- Playground games

Physical Education

- A mixture of orienteering and athletics.
- Yoga sessions

Computing

- Use iMovie to create a short video.
- Using Publisher to create an advertisement.
- Comparing websites when finding information.

Geography

- North East
- Main human and physical features.
- What does the NE look like on a map?
- Water cycle.

Music

- Children will be learning about different musical elements. E.g. Duration, tempo, dynamics.
- Children will also take part in singing

Religious

- Buddhism
- Children to learn about Wesak, the Eightfold Path, Celebrations

Education

(Durham)