

English

- To plan and write diary entries from a character's viewpoint.
- To write a newspaper report
- Observe and use a range of poetic language devices such as rhyme, alliteration and repetition
- To read a range of fiction and non-fiction texts and to be able to answer comprehension questions about them.

Art & Design

- To observe and comment on the work of William Morris and Orla Kiely.
- To investigate how printed patterns are repeated.

Computing

- Analysing how coding makes items move in a programme.
- Creating algorithms to move a character in a game.
- Layering coding of multiple sprites to create game elements e.g. game's being won/restarted

Mathematics

- Using the 3x and 4x tables to solve problems
- Identifying fractions of shapes and amounts
- Counting in fractions
- Addition and subtraction of fractions and finding pairs to make a whole.
- Recognising right angles, and perpendicular and parallel lines.

Design & Technology

- To etch material to create something to print a pattern repeatedly.
- To use different inks and paints to enhance prints.

Geography

- To identify Australia on a map and be able to discuss it's location in regards to hemispheres.
- To compare their climate and other aspects to the UK.

Modern

Languages

- Revise introductions and giving our age in French.
- To learn the months of the year and begin to describe ourselves.

Music

- To use body percussion to create sequences of different sounds.

Science

- Identify the different parts of a plant and the jobs they do.
- Chronicle the life cycle of a plant.
- Think about what plants need to grow and be healthy.

History

- To look at changes which occurred to the local area during the Victorian era.
- To create a chronology of events
- To understand the importance of mining in the local area.

Physical

Education

- To use our spatial awareness to keep us safe while running.
- To use different throws to adapt accuracy and distance.
- To follow rules and apply tactics in games.

Religious

Education (Durham)

- Learning about what Christians believe about 'Kingdom of God'
- Read bible stories from the New Testament
- To discuss Pentecost and it's importance to Christians.